Local Financial Advisors Host “Think Green” Recycling Day

APRIL 21, 2014 – DEDHAM, MASS.– Local Ameriprise financial advisors are hosting a community recycling day on Saturday, May 10, from 9-11 a.m., at 865 Providence Highway, Suite 200 in Dedham. A document destruction company will be onsite to shred and recycle confidential paperwork and documents. Used business equipment, including computers, printers and scanners will also be accepted, then refurbished or recycled. There may be a small fee for TVs, monitors and data scrubbing.

Recyclers are encouraged to also bring nonperishable food items, which will be donated to Dedham Food Pantry, a local hunger relief organization affiliated with Feeding America. The organization helps feed the more than 320,000 residents of eastern Massachusetts who have difficulty affording enough food to meet their nutritional needs.

“Ameriprise Financial is dedicated to supporting organizations that are actively engaged in domestic hunger relief efforts,” said Roger Cummings, CFP®, one of three local Ameriprise financial advisors who are hosting the event. “We’re excited to support these efforts on a local level, while also giving people an opportunity to get rid of their unwanted electronics, documents and apparel in a responsible way.” Rachel Rabinovich and John Lanahan, CFP® have joined Cummings in this year’s effort.
